

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy

Introduction

This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy relates to actions and activities of Ahmarra during the period of 1st January 2024 to 31st December 2024.

The statement sets down Ahmarra's commitment to preventing slavery and human trafficking in our business activities and the steps we have put in place with the aim of ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our own business and supply chains. We all have a duty to be alert to risks, however small. Staff are expected to report their concerns and management to act upon them.

Organisational structure

This statement covers the business activities of Ahmarra which are as follows:

Supply and Installation of fire doors and associated joinery and architectural ironmongery.

The Company operates in the United Kingdom only and all staff are employed directly by Ahmarra.

We do not use agencies, seasonal workers or migrant workers.

Training

To ensure a good understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains, the Company requires all staff to attend modern slavery and human trafficking awareness training every 24 months.

Policies

The Company is committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our business or our supply chains. This Statement affirms its intention to act ethically in our business relationships.
